

2025-2026 TUITION & PROGRAM COSTS

Program Includes:

- Maximum volume/days on snow (FIS – 120, U16 - 100)
- 1:5 coach to athlete ratio
- Two training camps*: Chile in September, Western Canada in December
- All local training costs (i.e. hill space, 5x7) and local racing (i.e. race entry fees)
- Race starts
  - U16 - all OCUP series races
  - FIS - all local FIS level races
- Fully integrated academic program to ensure maximum time on snow, while working toward Ontario Secondary School Diploma requirements with small class sizes, hands on learning
- Post-secondary planning, application & guidance support
- Full time coaching and comprehensive programs
- Physical conditioning onsite
- Mental conditioning for high-performance athletes
- Year-round injury prevention program
- Nutrition program with meals prepared by a Cordon Bleu chef
- Facilities in Tornaveen, our 12,000 square foot Victorian mansion, including classrooms, gymnasium, weight room with Olympic lifting platforms, tuning room, dining room, study hall, lounge, boarding rooms
- Equipment preparation
- Uniform

Base Tuition*	U16	FIS
Day Student	$64,230	$69,230
Boarding Student	$82,230	$87,230

* All flights booked and paid for by families

FIS Additional Program Costs* (all FIS athlete participation):

Anticipated Camps ****

Europe Project - January	Approx. $15,000
Ottawa Series - February
USA Spring Series - March
East Spring Series - April
West Spring Series - April

Extra Projects - Optional

Yukon Project - November	Approx. $5,000
Speed Project - February

\ All flights booked and paid for by families*

\* Camps will be finalized once conditions known and season is underway. Above is the current projected plan which may change.*

Fees:

Registration Fee	$3,000
Application Fee	$200
International Student Fee	$6,000

Bursaries and scholarships available.

Payment plans available upon request, fees apply.